

SUMMARY TABLE OF THE TITLE IV-E CHILD WELFARE WAIVER DEMONSTRATIONS AS OF MARCH 2012

Waiver Type	Description	States	Start Date	Completion Date (Actual or Expected)	Research Design	Implementation Status
						Active			Completed
						Under Original Waiver	Under 5-Year Extension	Under Short-Term Extension	Completed As Scheduled	Terminated Early
Subsidized Guardianship/Kinship Permanence	Relatives or other caregivers who assume legal custody of children are eligible for a monthly subsidy equal or comparable to monthly foster care payments.	Delaware	7/1/1996	12/31/2002	Pre-post comparison				•
		Illinois	5/1/1997	10/31/2009	Experimental				•
		Iowa	2/1/2007	9/1/2010	Experimental					•
		Maryland	3/1/1998	9/30/2004	Experimental				•
		Minnesota	11/17/2005	9/30/2010	Experimental				•
		Montana	6/21/2001	12/31/2008	Experimental				•
		New Mexico	7/1/2000	12/31/2005	Experimental				•
		North Carolina	7/1/1997	2/28/2008	Comparison Site					•
		Oregon	7/1/1997	6/30/2011	Comparison Site				•
		Tennessee	12/7/2006	3/31/2009	Experimental					•
Wisconsin	10/14/2005	7/31/2011	Experimental				•
Capped IV-E Allocations and Flexibility to Local Agencies	States give local entities flexibility in spending IV-E funds for new services and supports in exchange for a capped allocation of title IV-E funds.	California	7/1/2007	6/30/2013	Time Series Analysis	•
		Florida	10/1/2006	7/31/2012	Time Series Analysis		•
		Indiana	1/1/1998	6/30/2012	Matched Case Comparison			•
		North Carolina	7/1/1997	2/28/2008	Comparison Site					• ¹
		Ohio	10/1/1997	9/30/2015	Comparison Site			• ²
		Oregon	7/1/1997	6/30/2016	Experimental			• ³
Services for Caregivers with Substance Use Disorders	States use IV-E dollars to fund services for caregivers with substance use disorders.	Delaware	7/1/1996	12/31/2002	Comparison Site				•
		Illinois	4/28/2000	11/30/2012	Experimental			•
		Maryland	10/1/2001	12/31/2002	Experimental					•
		New Hampshire	11/15/1999	11/30/2005	Experimental				•

¹North Carolina completed its original (Phase I) waiver as scheduled in June 2004, but terminated its waiver extension (including the guardianship component) early in February 2008.

²Ohio is currently in its second five-year extension, which was awarded retroactively effective October 1, 2010.

³Oregon is currently in its second five-year extension, which was awarded effective July 1, 2011.

SUMMARY TABLE OF THE TITLE IV-E CHILD WELFARE WAIVER DEMONSTRATIONS AS OF MARCH 2012

Waiver Type	Description	States	Start Date	Completion Date (Actual or Expected)	Research Design	Implementation Status
						Active			Completed
						Under Original Waiver	Under 5-Year Extension	Under Short-Term Extension	Completed As Scheduled	Terminated Early
Managed Care Payment Systems	States test alternative managed care financing mechanisms to reduce child welfare costs while improving permanency, safety, and well-being outcomes for targeted families.	Colorado	10/26/2001	6/30/2003	Experimental					•
		Connecticut	7/9/1999	10/31/2002	Experimental					•
		Maryland	1/1/2000	12/31/2002	Experimental					•
		Michigan	10/1/1999	9/30/2003	Experimental				•
		Washington	3/27/2002	6/30/2003	Experimental					•
Intensive Service Options	States increase the variety and intensity of services to reduce out-of-home placement rates and improve child permanency and safety.	Arizona	4/17/2006	12/31/2008	Experimental					•
		California	12/1/1998	12/31/2005	Experimental				•
		Mississippi	4/1/2001	9/30/2004	Experimental					•
Post-Adoption Services	Provided post-adoption services and training.	Maine	4/1/1999	12/31/2004	Experimental				•
Tribal Administration of IV-E Funds	Tribes developed systems to administer IV-E programs and claim IV-E reimbursement directly.	New Mexico	7/1/2000	12/31/2005	Comparison Site				•
Enhanced Training for Child Welfare Staff	Trained public and private-sector child welfare workers to improve permanency and safety outcomes.	Illinois	1/1/2003	6/30/2005	Experimental					•